

Dear Parents,

Please give some thought to the following two questions, and bring the answers with you to orientation. Grandma Pat and I will read them carefully, and be prepared to share some insights with you about these goals at the first conference in November. Input from any and all family members is welcome, including grandparents and care providers.

Thanks!

Jo

Parent's name(s) _____

Child's name _____

What are some of the academic goals you have for your child this year?

What are some of the social goals you have for your child this year?